3 YEARS FOR GUNN

PLEADS GUILTY TO MANSLAUGHTER—JURY DISAGREES.

GIVE ASSAULTER LIMIT

Levi Kelly Gets Six Months Sentence and $100 Fine on Confession—Struck John Touhy.

After a jury failed to agree on a verdict after twenty-two hours deliberation, Roy Gunn of Burlington Junction pleaded guilty in circuit court last night to manslaughter and was sentenced to serve three years in the state penitentiary. He was charged with having caused the death of Leonard W. Huddle, a farmer of near Burlington Junction, last May in a fight over a pint of whisky.

The trial of Gunn began Saturday morning. It went to a jury at 10:30 o'clock that night after a bitter fight between opposing counsel. After taking a great number of ballots and much consultation and debate, during which time the vote stood almost without variance at 7 to 5 for conviction for manslaughter, the jury was discharged at 9 o'clock last night, in a special session.

Sentence Begins Today.

It was then that Gunn offered to plead guilty to manslaughter. Sentence was then pronounced by Judge W. C. Ellison. His sentence will begin today, although he has been in the county jail since last spring. So his confinement will really be about three and one-half years.

In speaking about the case this morning, Prosecuting Attorney Geo. Pat Wright said.

"This is a case in which good men may easily disagree on the punishment and remain honest to their convictions. Under murder in the second degree the least punishment is ten years in the state penitentiary. Under manslaughter in the third degree the maximum punishment is three years. It was a case where there was much room for fair and reasonable men to disagree. It seemed the jury was unable to agree on the punishment. Five of the jury stood for murder in the second degree and seven of their number stood for manslaughter.

Effected Same Result.

"In view of the fact that a majority of the jury stood for manslaughter in the third degree, and in view of the further fact that it appeared that the jury was hopelessly divided, and this would necessitate another trial at some future term of court with the same possible result, and for the further reason that the state must in the end pay the costs of all the trials, I felt constrained to accept a plea of guilty to manslaughter in the third degree with the punishment fixed at three years.

"This the court did and discharged the jury, the defendant having announced to the court that he would enter a plea to manslaughter and submit to that punishment."

Gunn will be kept in the county jail here until the close of the court term, when he will be taken to Jefferson City, Deputy Sheriff Callahan announced this morning.

Threw Brick at Enemy.

Levi Kelly of Maryville was sentenced to serve six months in the county jail and was fined $100 by Judge Ellison this morning when Kelly pleaded guilty to common assault upon John Touhy last June. The original charge was assault with intent to kill. The maximum penalty for such an offense was given. Judge Ellison first gave a one-year sentence, then later six months and a $200 fine. When proven by counsel for Kelly that both of these sentences were above the prescribed penalty for common assault, Kelly was given the half-year sentence and a $100 fine.

Kelly had not paid the fine at noon. It is expected he will do so, however. He was charged with having struck John Touhy, a city employee until recently, with a brick-bat following a quarrel some time prior to the assault. Touhy was rendered unconscious for a short time, as a result of the assault and from the fall from a water wagon on which he was seated when attacked.

Both men were employed by the Shoemaker-Bovard Transfer company. It is said Touhy, prior to the fight, "called Kelly down" for talking improperly of a woman. A few minutes before the attack, it is said, both took the hand of friendship.

Try Carter Tomorrow.

A suit of Homer Hankins against the Wabash railroad for damages was dismissed by Hankins this morning.

The trial of Arthur Carter of Fairfax, alleged to have caused the death of Charles Wood, near Barnard, last May, will be taken up in court tomorrow morning. He is charged with manslaughter. It is said Carter, driving an automobile, caused the team Wood was driving to scare so that Wood was thrown in front of the wagon, causing his death two days later.

No court session was held this afternoon.

PLAN MORE STUNTS

ARRANGE FREE PANTOMIME ACTS AND ANTIQUE DISPLAY.

GET FIREWORKS SUPPLY

Portion of Pain Attractions Arrive, Preparatory for Home-Coming Celebration Next Week.

More attractions for the initial home-coming celebration of Nodaway county, which is to be held here October 13 to 17 inclusive, are being arranged by the Commercial club and committees. One of the newest features planned is an antique and curio display. It is in charge of George B. Baker. All persons in the county are requested to contribute any old portraits, photographs, firearms, Indian weapons, old books, papers or curios they may possess.

The contributions will be taken good care of, Mr. Baker assures the patrons, and will be returned in good condition at the end of the celebration. While no definite location for the display has yet been selected, it is planned to arrange them in some business building on the square, to make it easily accessible to visitors.

Get Pantomime Acts.

A contract also has been made with the Western Vaudeville association for free pantomime acts each day of the celebration next week by Bennett and Lowe, world famous pantomimists. This company promises one of the best lines of acts of this variety in the country. Originally European comedy pantomimists, they are likewise famous in America as the originators and creators of some of the best laugh-making stunts of this kind ever shown. They perform a series of sensational and amusing feats each day of the home-coming. The acts will be on the court house square.

Sends Fireworks Display

A portion of the supplies to be used here during home-coming week by the Pain Fireworks Display company in nightly pyrotechnical displays has been received by the Commercial club and is being stored in readiness for next week's attractions. Other supplies are expected to arrive here within the next few days.

The destruction of part of the company's plant in Chicago last week will in no way hamper or diminish the display here, the company assures the club.

CATHOLIC MISSION A SUCCESS

Many Attend Special Services at St. Patrick's Church.

The mission which began in St. Patrick's Catholic church, First and Buchanan streets, Sunday, September 27, closed last night after a week's success both as to attendance and results spiritually. The special services were conducted by the Reverend Fathers Benedict and Vitus, priests of the congregation of the Precious Blood from Carthagena, Ohio.

The morning services consisted almost entirely of instructions in the faith, with a discourse following each night of the week. The mission drew members of the Catholic faith living many miles from Maryville.

SEPTEMBER NOT NORMAL

Last Month's Rainfall Was Greatest in Twenty Years.

The month of September, 1914, was an unusual one, as one well knows if he lived that time in northwest Missouri or consults the weather records of J. R. Brink, official observer. The chart shows that the rainfall last month was the greatest for any September in the twenty years Mr. Brink has maintained a record. It also was unusual because no frost fell in this county and the temperature ranged above normal.

The total fall for the month was 9.03 inches, of which slightly more than one-half, or 4.09 inches fell in the twenty-four hours from 7 o'clock Monday morning, September 14, to the same hour of the 15th. Other Septembers in which record rains were recorded are in 1902 with 8.05 inches and in 1905 with 7.19 inches.

The highest temperature at any time during the month was on the 5th, when the mercury went to within one degree of the hundred mark, while freezing came nearest on September 26 and 27, when the mercury fell to 44 degrees.

The days of the month were divided as follows: Clear, 20; cloudy, 5; partly cloudy, 5. In all of the ten cloudy and partly cloudy days rain fell.

The mean maximum temperature for the month was 75.06 degrees and the mean minimum was 53.1 degrees.

That frost has not appeared yet seems remarkable when it is remembered that the frozen jewels usually appear in north Missouri as early as the middle of September, or by the last of the month at the latest. Last year the first frost was September 26.

CHURCHES PRAY FOR PEACE

Hope for War's End in Supplication, Song and Sermon.

All Maryville churches yesterday complied with President Wilson's proclamation asking that churches of various denominations set aside October 4 as a day of prayer that the European war might soon end. Not only were special prayers uttered by the church congregations and supplication for peace made. The song service in some of the churches and the sermons that it might soon end.

Perhaps the petition of the president was more fully observed in the First Presbyterian church. Prayers for peace marked the Sunday school and morning and evening preaching services, while the songs all dwelt upon the subject. The Rev. S. D. Harkness, pastor, also founded his sermon last night on the president's suggestion, a resume of the conditions in Europe, the part this country might play in mediation and of the need of a greater Christianity there.

However, all invocations in the various Protestant churches had for their dominant thought a plea for an everlasting peace in Europe.

Homer Shipps, Second and Buchanan, left yeterday for Kansas City to become salesman for the Speedwell Automobile company. Mr. Shipps has been employed here as Overland salesman since leaving the Speedwell firm, about a year ago.

METHODISM REIGNS

HOLD NINETY-SEVENTH CONFERENCE HERE THIS WEEK.

EXPECT 500 TO ATTEND

Preliminary of North Missouri Meet Begins Tomorrow Night With Epworth Anniversary Observance.

The ninety-seventh Missouri annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will begin in the First Methodist church tomorrow night. It will continue until next Monday morning. Between 250 and 300 delegates and perhaps 200 or more laymen from over north Missouri are expected to attend.

The meeting this week will be the fourth the North Methodists have held in Maryville since the first one in 1878. This city has seemingly been a favored spot for the "chicken eaters," which speaks well for the hospitality for the people in general and the church pastors in particular.

Every provision has been made by the Rev. G. S. Cox, local pastor, for the entertainment of the delegations while here. A program of speaking unexcelled or approached in any of the previous near-hundred conferences has been provided for the week.

While the conference proper will not begin until Wednesday morning with an assembly and communion, the Epworth League, the young people's organization, will observe its anniversary in the church tomorrow night. E. B. Thompson will preside. An address will be made by the Rev. W. F. Sheridan, D. D., of Chicago, general secretary of the league.

The conference sessions will be open ones, to which anyone interested in Methodist work is invited. The conference will close one week hence with the announcement of church appointments, really the most important affair of the session.

While the general sessions will be in the First Methodist church, the various committees will meet as follows:

The statistician, the First National bank.

The treasurer, the Farmers Trust company.

The stewards, the Elks club.

Conference relations, office at Price & McNeal's.

Conference examiners, Commercial club rooms.

The official visitors and lecturers will stop while in Maryville at the following places:

Bishop Wilbur Patterson Thirkield, D. D., Linville hotel.

The Rev. W. F. Sheridan, D. D., the parsonage, 216 South Main street.

The Rev. F. B. Fisher, D. D., the parsonage.

The Rev. Dr. Ream, Linville hotel.

The Rev. Joseph M. M. Gray, D. D., Linville hotel.

Judge William H. Wallace, the parsonage.

The Rev. J. W. Lee, D. D., Mrs. Laura Beal, 403 East Fourth street.

The Rev. F. D. Bovard, D. D., the parsonage.

The Rev. C. B. Spencer, D. D., the parsonage

The Rev. J. W. Hancher, D. D., the parsonage.

The General says:

If your dealer offers you an unknown brand of roofing, ask him who stands behind it and whether the manufacturer is a responsible concern. If he doesn't know, or if he refuses to give you the information, you are justified in buying elsewhere. Dealers who handle —do not hesitate to say who makes it. In fact, one of their strongest arguments is to tell their customers that we are the manufacturers of Certain-teed Roofing.

Certain-teed Roofing is guaranteed 5 years for 1-ply, 10 years for 2-ply, and 15 years for 3-ply, and we stand behind this guarantee with the biggest roofing and building paper mills in the world.

PUBLICITY

Sure Cure for Corporate Diseases.

The startling disclosures of corporate mismanagement in the last ten years have brought about a general feeling that publicity of corporation affairs is both necessary and desirable for the future well-being of all corporations. This publicity may be effected in many ways and should give the public as well as the stockholders such information as will eliminate all possible chance for corruption and mismanagement.

In the past, managers of some corporations have operated their business in a more or less arrogant fashion, persistently refusing to make their acts known to the public or even to their stockholders. In most instances if these operations had been made public at the time, many of the ills from which they are now suffering would not have occurred, and millions of dollars of investment would have been saved.

The effect of corporate mismanagement is greatly magnified, however, when its discovery comes too late by governmental investigation. Generally speaking, if the facts were voluntarily made public, or if they were made known through established methods of publicity, in the regular course of business, the mismanagement of the corporation would never occur or it could be remedied immediately and the bad effect of it would be comparatively small.

And so it is with many houses of business—in the field of commerce and manufacture. They are afraid of publicity—afraid to have their factories examined and to let purchasers verify statements or facts concerning the goods. The only conclusion to be reached in such case is that the manufacturer has something to conceal, which, if discovered, would not bear out his assertions.

Publicity in relation to all business matters is the best cure for their evils, just as light and air kill the germs of disease.

Consult your local dealer. He will be glad to give you detailed information about our complete line of goods, and will quote you reasonable prices. Be sure goods are made and guaranteed by us.

EARL CAMPBELL DIES.

Funeral Services Being Held This Afternoon at First Christian Church.

The funeral services for Earl G. Campbell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Campbell, who died Saturday night at the family home, 621 East First street, were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the First Christian church, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Robert L. Finch.

The musical part of the service included a solo "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," sung by Miss Besse Scott, and numbers by a quartet composed of Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Mrs. John D. Richey, W. E. Goforth and H. J. Becker. The pall bearers were Fred Harbison, Paul Basford, Chester Bennett, John Mutz, Lester Bennett and Hosick Holmes.

The deceased was 30 years old. He was born in this city and spent his life here until the last few years, when he had been employed in St. Joseph. Ten days ago he was stricken with paralysis and was taken to Ensworth hospital in St. Joseph. He rallied slightly from the first stroke, and last Monday was brought to the home of his parents. His death occurred at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Campbell, three brothers, Claude, Robert and Harold Campbell, and two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Morehouse and Miss Nelle Campbell, all residents of this city.

Challenges Hog Raiser.

James W. Miller, near Burlington Junction, has issued a challenge to the Skidmore farmer on hog raising. He says.

Editor Democrat-Forum: I see a communication from a correspondent near Skidmore concerning his experience with O. I. C. hogs. I think I can beat him. I have the O. I. C. hogs. One sow farrowed eleven pigs in October, 1913. She raised ten of them, which were marketed last spring when not quite 7 months old at $160. She had ten more, all alive, up to this time and all doing fine.

Good-Bye Unlicensed Dogs!

The ten days limit given by the city council for dog owners to pay the $2 license and for eligible men to pay the $2 poll tax expires today. Henceforth and hereafter suits will fly thick and fast, so sayeth City Attorney W. H. Crawford. A great number of canines still are running at large about Maryville, it is said. A goodly number of men, ranging in age between 21 and 50, also hold themselves liable to arrest for failure to plank down the two wheels for the right to live here.

SLAIN BY GERMAN SENTRY

Son of Lord Cowdray Had Been Taken Prisoner.

Paris, Oct. 5.—Lieutenant Harold Pearson, son of Lord Cowdray, the noted oil financier, who was taken prisoner at the battle of the Marne, was later shot and killed by a German sentry while trying to escape.

He and his orderly, a private named Mackay, bolted from the prison inclosure while they thought the attention of the sentry was engaged elsewhere. The sentry fired, killing Lieutenant Pearson. Mackay escaped, and, obtaining peasants' clothing, drove a calf through the German lines and reached the British forces.

Prince Oscar Has Heart Attack When Turcos Repulse Imperial Guard.

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch from Copenhagen reports that the correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt, who witnessed the battle at Verdun, when Prince Oscar led the imperial guard, says:

"Though the Germans fought like lions, the Turcos climbed trees like monkeys, hiding in the leaves. The Germans and Turcos fought and wrestled in a terrible hand-to-hand struggle and many German officers fell dead around the prince, who thereafter had the heart attack already described."

PRESIDENT ATTENDS PRAYER SERVICES

Entire American Nation Prays For End of European Hostilities.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Prayers for peace in Europe arose from all parts of the United States, in accordance with President Wilson's proclamation. Clergymen of all denominations read the president's proclamation, itself a fervent prayer, and congregations gathered to sing peace hymns and take part in peace services.

The president himself attended the Central Presbyterian church here and heard Rev. James H. Taylor pray that the United States might be instrumental in restoring peace to Europe and that Mr. Wilson might be given wisdom and strength in his mediation proposals. The president was accompanied by Secretary McAdoo and several White House guests.

In his sermon, Rev. Mr. Taylor declared that the war in Europe meant not the breaking down of Christianity, but the failure of some people to follow Christian principles. He added that permanent peace would come when the nations of the world were turned more to prayer.

The church was packed until there was not even standing room inside. After the service a large crowd waited until the president had taken communion as which time he rode away in his automobile.

URGES PENSION SYSTEM

Says Britons Disabled In War Should Be Paid $5 a Week.

London, Oct. 5.—Every man permanently disabled in the war and unable to follow his former occupation ought to be paid $5 a week during his life, in the opinion of George Nicoll Barnes, the labor leader, and a member of parliament for the Blackfriars division of Glasgow.

Mr. Barnes advocated this plan at a mass meeting here. Heretofore, he said, the disabled had been allowed to beg in the streets. Now, however, the government was giving serious consideration to the subject of these unfortunates, and a like situation would not again exist. He estimated that the sum which the government would be called upon to pay the dependents of breadwinners in the field would not reach $25,000,000.

Stylish New Skirts

WE are now showing a very complete assortment of separate Skirts in the new Fall and Winter Styles.

The style tendencies are toward the full effects. The long, full tunics in circular or plaited effects are meeting with favor, while the full skirt measuring three or four yards around the bottom, the fullness being shirred or plaited to the waistband or sometimes starts from the yoke, are much in demand. The yoke and basque effects are much in evidence and are shown both ia tailored and dressy models. The simple tailored styles are also being shown considerable interest.

The materials employed vary, depending largely hpon the character of the skirt. In tailor mades the tendency is for serges, gabardines, cheviots and chuddah cloth. For dressy wear high lustre broadcloths and satins are used.

The range of prices are from:

$4.50 to $15.00

LATEST BLOUSE

YOU should see our assemblage of the new Fall Blouse. So many new ideas are embodied in the new styles that we are confident you will be pleased with them.

While the vestee and blouse effects are much in use.

The sleeves are mostly full length, while the collars are both high and low roll effects.

BECOMES DELIRIOUS AT FAIR

Dewey Burch, County Delegate to the State School Has Break-down.

Dewey Burch, a son of George Burch a farmer who lives near Pickering, who was selected above two other boys to represent Nodaway county at the state fair school which was held in Sedalia last month, has returned to his home in a delirious condition. It was not overwork at the school however that caused the break down according to W. M. Oakerson, county superintendent who also attended the fair and school. He returned Saturday night.

Young Burch is still in a semi-delirious condition at his home where he was taken last Friday. He was said to be in a sound and healthy condition before leaving for the fair school. Superintendent Oakerson says however that no great mental nor physical strain was placed upon the boys. The morning work consisted of lectures and demonstrations while in the afternoon short hikes to the country were taken or visits to the state fair made.

His unbalanced mental condition was first noted by the superintendent of the school Wednesday night, last week when Young Burch asked permission to sleep with the school manager because he said the other boys threatened to kill him.

Injured Man Improving.

Jesse Onstott, an employee of the Maryville Electric Light and Power company, who was injured Saturday when he fell off a scaffold and struck the cement floor, was slightly improved today. So far no critical symptoms have arisen.

STRUGGLE IS STILL IN FULL SWING

Northeast France Is Pivot of Battle.

ALLIES ON OFFENSIVE.

Have Set Themselves Task of Forcing Germans Back.

ALL IS QUIET IN LORRAINE.

No Change In Positions of Opposing Armies.

London, Oct. 5.—Having repulsed the German attack, presumably in the vicinity of Roye, the French, according to the official communication issued at Paris, have resumed the offensive at several points, while other positions on their left have been appreciably maintained.

The great effort of the allies to envelope the German right may therefore be said to be again in operation, and it is believed that the whole French column from Roye northward to Arras is moving eastward against the German position.

It is the same operation that has been tried repeatedly for the last three weeks in an attempt to reach the German lines of communication and encircle the German army forming the right wing or force it to fall back to Belgium and Luxemburg.

It is believed that the British Indian troops are now on the line and possibly some of the British territorials and it is known that the Germans have sent up heavy reinforcements from the center to aid the hard fighting soldiers on the right.

Invaders on Defensive.

The Germans have had a long time in which to make their position secure, so there is a lot of hard fighting ahead for both the attacking forces and the defenders. The defensive role is now apparently being assumed by the invaders.

In the center, from the Oise to the Argonne, the two well entrenched armies are still watching each other, ready at a moment's notice to meet attacks or on the advance of aerial observers to move to some point where the line is threatened.

In the Argonne district, where the crown prince's army attempted an advance a few days ago, there has been additional fighting, with the result that the Germans have been pushed back northward. In southern Woevre the French are "making progress, but very slowly," against the Germans, who crossed the Meuse at St. Mihiel, but were forced back over that river.

Quiet In Lorraine.

In Lorraine and the Vosges there is no change in the positions of the opposing armies. This probably is accounted for by the fact that the Germans have not sufficient forces to attack the almost impregnable line of fortifications, while the French are too busy elsewhere to attempt an invasion of the lost provinces. They have set themselves the task of getting the Germans out of northeastern France, and if this can be accomplished they are faced with the necessity of attacking the German positions in Alsace-Lorraine.

Of the result of the operations around the line of fortifications of Antwerp there is considerable mystery.

Belgians Fall Back.

The Belgian legation at London announced that the Belgians had been compelled before a violent artillery attack to fall back east of the river Senne, toward the Nethe. This was taken to mean that some of the forts had fallen, and the German official report asserts as a fact that Forts Lierre, Waelhem and Konigshoyck had been taken, with redoubts and earthworks, and that the Germans had entered the line of forts through the breaches.

Later the Belgian minister, on authority of a telegram from Antwerp, declared that the forts had not been captured, although Waelhem was badly damaged.

In the battle of Augustowo, in Russian Poland, victory is claimed for the Russian arms, the official communication from Petrograd declaring that the German defeat is complete.

The Japanese in their campaign against the German concession of Kiauchau have been reinforced at Weihsien, in Shantung province. Having made answer to the protest of the China government, they are proceeding with the business in hand without further comment.
